WORKSHOP

Minimal Self-Consciousness
Emotions and Perceptual Experience

July 22nd 2014 –Institute of Philosophy – Porto

in collaboration with

Swiss Interdisciplinary Discussion Group
'Self-Consciousness & Kinds of Self' – Institute of Philosophy – Basel

VENUE - Círculo Universitário - Rua do Campo Alegre, 877- Porto

[CARTAZ]

Both classic phenomenologists and contemporary cognitive scientists have argued that right from the outset our experiential life is characterized by a primitive form of self-consciousness.

This workshop aims to examine the role of affect-based relations in constituting self-consciousness and perceptual experience, and to explore potential ways of addressing the debate between minimal versus relational theories of self-consciousness.
